Refresh A Sunroom For Spring

Take the rustic elements of classic farmhouse style and give it a spring lift with floral upholstered armchairs teamed with plain coral designs for balance. Caroline Brackett of Caroline Brackett Studio of Design adds:

'I prefer the look of a European farmhouse to that of the new modern American style. I love mixing so many found objects, using original materials, and not overthinking the design; layering, lots of antiques, pattern plays, and wood. I love antiques and am filling my farmhouse with them. They bring so much warmth and charm to a house. A must for this project was the colorful sunroom off the primary bedroom. The client wanted lots of pops of color, which is seen throughout the home.
