Let these green bedroom ideas inspire a calming makeover

Green bedroom ideas invoke a sense of calm and serenity and that's because the hue is known for being the most soothing of all the bedroom colors. Just what you want in a place that's mostly used for sleeping, right?

And there are so many greens to choose from for your bedroom idea, so you can pick a tone that perfectly suits your style – you've got modern, moody olive greens, stylish sage greens, vibrant teals, barely-there pale greens, and many, many more.

18. Be inventive and use vintage fabric as panels

A beautiful fabric design encased in a panel can be the starting point of your whole green bedroom scheme, as Caroline Brackett, principal designer and owner of Caroline Brackett Design explains:

‘Don’t stress about everything matching, there are many elements of this room that don’t technically match, but they work together in a harmonious way to make the space more interesting. We pulled colors out of the Chinoiserie panels to come up with the color scheme. Look in unexpected places for color palette inspiration.’
